We will take up a special second collection next weekend, September 23/24 to help the victims of Hurricane Irma. Checks should include the notation: 2017 Hurricane Irma Collection and should be made payable to the Archdiocese of Louisville. Donations can also be sent directly to the Archdiocese at: Archdiocese of Louisville, Attn: Finance Office, P.O. On Sunday, October 14, 2018, St. Theresa will celebrate 200 years at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please mark your calendars so you can join us in this joyous occasion!

Note of Thanks

We want to thank everyone who attended the Harvest Prayer Service on September 7th. Of the students attending from our Religious Ed. program, the 9th/10th grade class had the highest in attendance and because of some creativity on Madison Fackler's part, the 1st grade class donated the highest number of items. All told, the students donated 72 items to the Meade County Food Pantry. We are so proud of all our kids and community.

Prayer Intention
for the Week

For the grace to forgive those who have wronged us: that God will free our hearts to forgive others as God forgives us

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."
Romans 14:7-8

The message is clear; we belong to God alone. All that a steward does is therefore done for the Lord. Whenever we assist others, we are God's own messenger, bringing his presence to those we serve.
