The Meade County Extension Office is hosting a series of programs to enlighten and educate "A Realistic Look at Drugs and Addiction in Meade County". Call 270-422-4958 to RSVP. All classes begin at 6:00 pm at the Meade County Extension Office.

September 20th - From High to Low to Living Life: Understanding Addiction: Alex Elswich was a successful high school athlete who played sports in college until his addiction threatened to destroy his life. Hear his story, how he took control of his addiction and how addiction grips the human brain.

September 27th - The Truth of the Matter: Drugs in Meade County: Front line responders and members of the judicial system will be on hand to present factual information on Meade County substance abuse. Interactive Q & A.

October 18th - Hiding In Plain Sight: People with substance use disorders will go to great lengths to secure and conceal that which soothes. Join KY State Police or FBI representatives to learn common ways drug users hide their stash. Especially important for those who care for school aged youth.

November 1 - Where Do We Go From Here? Each of us plays an important role to support our community to make it the best it can be. What do we do and where do we go from here with this new knowledge on addiction and abuse in Meade County?

"What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him?"

James 2:14

St. James poses this bold question because he believes this basic tenant of Christian stewardship - all are called to share their gifts in love and justice with others to build up God's kingdom.
