Black and Indian Missions

Next weekend, we will take up a special second collection for the annual Black and Indian Missions Collection. This Collection exists to help diocesan communities preach the Gospel of Jesus among the African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native people of God. Your donations help fund parish-based catechetical programs, support teacher and catechist professional development, encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and create diocesan structures, such as our own archdiocesan Office of Multicultural Ministry, that support ministry and evangelization in these diverse ethnic communities. Envelopes are in your packets. Please be generous!

Mass for Grieving the Loss to Suicide

The Family Ministries Office is offering a special Mass for those who have passed away due to suicide and those who grieve for them.

Archbishop Shelton will be the celebrant with Father Jonathan Erdman as the homilist.

For more information, contact Deacon Stephen Bowling at 502-471-2127.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”

1 Corinthians 10:31

Saint Paul goes straight to the essence of stewardship, “do everything for the Glory of God.” if we see stewardship as a life in gratitude to God, all we do, or give is a thankful response that gives glory to the Giver of that very life.
