Note of Thanks

"Words cannot express the gratitude felt by myself, Mike and our family for the love shown by our wonderful church family during the visitation, Mass and bereavement meal for our dear brother, John Hellhake. Our entire family and friends from out of town were completely overwhelmed and amazed with the parishioners of St. Mary Magdalen and their generosity and compassion shown at this difficult time.

Your actions and love have truly made Johnny's passing a celebration...of his life...and his going home to his heavenly Father.

With heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our wonderful church family." - Cheryl and Mike Harley

Prayer Intention for the Week

For the Church: that we may be good stewards of the gifts that God has given us and use these gifts for the good of others

Twenty-fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

“And his master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of his age are more shrewd in relation to their own kind than the sons of light.”

Luke 16:8

The parable of the unjust steward is not about thievery, but about initiative. If Jesus’ disciples would be only half as clever at promoting the Kingdom as the unjust manager was at promoting his own self interest, the Kingdom would flourish.
