Prayer Intention for the Week

For the Church: that we may manifest each day the work of faith, the labor of love, and the endurance of hope that is ours as God's people

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...then they handed him a Roman coin....He said to them, 'Whose image is this, and whose inscription?' They replied, 'The Caesar's.' 'Then give therefore to Caesar what is the Caesar's and to God what is God's.'" Matthew 22:19-21

What do you give to the Caesar and what do you give to God? Have you ever considered how much time you spend a week helping in your church or your community? Have you ever taken time to figure out what percentage of your income goes to the church and other charitable causes?

Priesthood Sunday

HAVE YOU THANKED YOUR PRIEST LATELY? PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY IS OCTOBER 29TH THIS YEAR!

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside for Catholics to thank, affirm, and share their love and support for our priests. It is celebrated on the last Sunday of October (October 29th this year), and has been promoted primarily by the USA Council (USAC) of Serra International (SI) and the Worldwide Marriage Encounter. For more information about Priesthood Sunday, see www.priestsunday.org

Marriage Moments

Ways to Turn your Spouse Off

1. Be too busy. Romance can't always fit neatly into a schedule. Do you have enough open, flexible time in your married life to flirt, follow a whim, or postpone a less urgent priority?
2. Be married to social media. Technology and the internet can save us a lot of time, but it can also be addictive and take a lot of time. Ask your spouse if you're over committed to the internet.
3. Let Noise Surround You. Some noises are happy and express life. But sometime noise is just a distraction or an irritation. Is there enough quiet space in your relationship to simply be present to each other's graceful being?
4. Let TV trump your spouse as your companion of choice. Yes, you can watch a favorite program together, but beware of TV or videos stealing time from playing together.
5. Let bargain hunting rob you of time - time to serve those who don't have the money even for a bargain. Let Matthew 25 ring in your ears: "I was hungry, thirsty, a stranger, naked, ill, in prison..." Spend some time and money responding to this sales pitch from Christ the King as Christmas approaches.
