Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me." Matthew 10:37

We all have loved ones in our lives; people who we cannot imagine being without. Each of those loved ones is a gift from a loving God. We must not however place these special people at a level above God Himself. God is to be our center-most point from which all blessing radiate.

Volunteer Training for Hildegard House

Join our community of compassionate volunteers at Hildegard House. Hildegard House provides a home and compassionate care for individuals at the end of life who have no home or loved ones to care for them so that they may die with dignity and access hospice care. We are the family for our residents and care for them just life family members.

Compassionate Companions commit to a weekly 5-hour shift. The next volunteer training for Compassionate Companions is Friday, July 14 from 6-8 p.m. and Saturday, July 15 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. To learn more about volunteering, register at www.hildegardhouse.org or call Volunteer Coordinator, Jane McNally at 502-581-8267.

"His Mercy Is From Age to Age..." World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2023. Tuesday, July 25, 9 a.m. to noon at St. Margaret Mary Pastoral Care Center, 7813 Shelbyville Road, Louisville, KY.

Presented by: Sister Betty Dawes, OSB. Living in God's Mercy in these "extraordinary years" we may ask...

- ◆ Who am I today on my unique journey of life?

Seating is limited, so please register prior to workshop by contacting Denise Puckett at dpuckett@archlou.org or (502) 636-0296, ext. 1268.
