PRAYER INTENTION FOR THE WEEK

That we may ask each day, “ What does it profit to gain the whole world but loose my soul:- and freely choose Christ above everything earthly ambition?

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanbksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...”
Philippians 4:6-7

The opposition of Christian stewardship is fear. Giving to God “from the top” and not from what is left over requires an inner assurance that God will provide for our needs. This assurance or faith is the solid foundation for the practical exercise of stewardship.

Holy Hour

When Bishop Baron was asked about Eucharistic Adoration, this is what he said:
“In a way, anything you want! There is no official, formalized way to spend a Holy Hour. You can pray the Liturgy of the Hours or the Rosary; you can read Scripture or spiritual works; you can prepare for teaching or preaching; you can thank God for the blessings in your life; you can bring the petitions of all those who have asked for your prayer; you can bring a pad of paper and a pencil, ready to write down the ideas and inspirations that come. You can even just sit in front of the Blessed Sacrament and do nothing at all, simply basking in his presence and undergoing a kind of “radiation therapy.”
